

This slice of Key West paradise provides a welcome departure from the typical island homes. Featuring two stories of elegant rooms flooded with natural light, this expansive and charming home is nestled among palm trees in a tranquil, lush property. The bedrooms and living areas surround a relaxing pool and patio, all with floor-to-ceiling windows and beautiful doors that beckon in the tropical sunshine. With five bedrooms, four baths, and a two-car garage, this house is perfect for a growing family, with ample room for a home office, entertaining, and creative spaces.

The exterior is a cool, refreshing seafoam color, trimmed with creamy white and dark green shutters for the perfect blend of classic architecture and island vibes. This custom home is a vibrant, restorative residence, designed to celebrate Key West's extraordinary beauty at the height of luxury.

This exquisite home offers a private, elegant living experience with contemporary Key West charm. Surrounded by greenery and built with luxurious comfort in mind, the house includes an expansive great room with pocketing sliders, flanked by a club room that opens to the covered patio and to the enormous backyard and pool — perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying much-deserved downtime. This home has all the classic elements of a traditional Key West home with some spectacular contemporary touches. Created by Marc Julien Homes in collaboration with Borrero Architecture, this 5000 square-foot masterpiece offers ample living space, relaxing bedrooms with windows that open out over the lawn, and a generous kitchen and dining area. The master and guest bedroom are downstairs, and three more ensuite bedrooms are on the second floor, making this house perfect for quiet family living. Throughout the home, large windows and homey elements bring together the best of island aesthetic and modern design.
