

Did you know that many CBD products are made with CBD isolate? Studies show that in comparison, full-spectrum CBD oil is often more effective at reducing pain and inflammation. That's because full-spectrum CBD carries all the terpenes and phytocannabinoids of the plant, which leads to a powerful synergy. It's the difference between a single musician and an amazing symphony. Discover the many benefits of our super-calming, pain-relieving Full-Spectrum CBD Oil.

No need to choose which essential oil best suits your needs! Enjoy an amazing synergistic effect from our unique essential oil blends. From our immunity-boosting mix to our anti-anxiety cocktail, we've got the recipe for your recovery.

Feeling the burn? And not in a good way? Soothe sore muscles and achy joints with our famous Pain-B-Gone. It lives up to its name, thanks to our innovative blend of CBD, arnica, camphor, menthol, and other potent pain-relieving ingredients. Roll it on or apply as a salve as often as you need it, then sit back and say "ahhh."

When the pain gets bad, you need to bring in the "muscle." Pain-B-Gone's big brother is super strong... a powerhouse against inflammation, overexerted tissues and tendons, and aching joints. Pain-B-Gone+ takes our flagship pain-relief blend and kicks it up a notch, bringing in shea and beeswax for extra soothing power. This essential oil warrior battles fibro, MS, and arthritis pain as either a roll-on or a salve!
